

Eligibility Criteria

Student must be a Singapore citizen enrolled in a Government or Government-aided school and meets either one of the following income criteria:

a. MOE FAS

- Gross household income (GHI) as at the time of application does not exceed $3,000 per month; or
- Household per capita income (PCI) at the time of application does not exceed $750 per month.

b. School-based FAS

- GHI as at the time of application is between $3,001 and $4,400 per month; or
- PCI as at the time of application is between $751 and $1,100 per month.

PCI = Monthly GHI / No. of members in the same household

Please note the following:

- Student who does not meet the eligibility criteria for MOE FAS will be considered for School-Based FAS. There is no need to submit a separate application.
- For applications made through sibling's school, you will need to request for a copy of the approval letter together with the application form (Pg 1-3) submitted from the sibling school (where the application is made), for verification at our school. This is needed before visiting the school uniform booth and bookshop.

ComCare Beneficiaries

If the student is a ComCare recipient, there is no need to submit the application as MOE FAS will be auto-granted to ComCare beneficiaries. The approval letter will be issued and/or sent to the eligible students separately.

Application

If you have children studying in different Government or Government-aided schools, you need to submit only 1 application to the school of any child.

Submission of application could be done in-person at the School General Office or through the e-FAS link: <https://go.gov.sg/moe-efas>. You may download the attached application form or obtain a copy from the School General Office. Please ensure that all supporting documents submitted are clearly printed.
